the essays in this collection were originally given at the international colloquium cent ans de bataille la bataille de cent ans held at the fondació tàpies in barcelona in september 1998 they are written from a variety of perspectives but are drawn together by the singular aim of addressing and interrogating georges bataille as our contemporary whose fascination with the rupture between mythical and experimental forms of discourse defines our own age as much as it did in bataille's own time more precisely the essays in this collection range over bataille's status as a novelist a poet an art critic a philosopher and a prophet of post modernity with this aim in mind they not only seek to advance and clarify debate about bataille's present status in the post modern canon but also shed new light on the complex relation between bataille and the present generation of readers who have come to him through the prism of post modernist thought it is of significance for each writer in this collection most crucially that the premonition of catastrophe which defined bataille's fluid political positions is also located between tragedy and irony this catechism is divided into three parts the first part treats of faith the second of morals the third of the means of grace in the first part our lord appears in his character of teacher in the second in his character of king and in the third in his character of high priest and since this catechism proposes as its primary object to answer the question for what purpose are we here upon earth thereby emphasizing and giving prominence to man's high calling and destiny it is especially suited to the present day when the pursuit of material interests self indulgence and pleasure engrosses the attention of so many this catechism is in fact nothing more nor less than an abstract of our lord's teaching and may be called a guide book for the christian on the road to heaven preface
